The FY 2021 Annual Report is published by the Office of Institutional Advancement of Theological College. It gratefully acknowledges contributions received by the seminary during the period of July 1, 2020, to June 30, 2021.

Every effort has been made to be as accurate as possible with the listing of names that appear in this annual report. We apologize for any omission or error in the compilation of these lists.

Mission

Theological College participates in the mission and responsibility of the bishops to provide for the people of God wise and holy priests close to the heart of Christ and consumed in his work of salvation. In affiliation with The Catholic University of America, Theological College assists seminarians in the task of vocational discernment and in the preparation for priestly life and ministry at the diocesan level, particularly as experienced in the United States.

Sulpician Tradition

The formation program of Theological College is guided by the principles and ethos of the Sulpician Fathers as articulated by Father Jean-Jacques Olier, founder of the Society of St.

Sulpice: "to live supremely for God in Christ Jesus our Lord, so much so that the inner life of His only Son should penetrate to the inmost depths of our heart and to such an extent that everyone should be able to say, 'It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.'" Originally founded to reform the clergy in 1630s France, the Society retains its commitment of "developing men of character, educating effective priests, forming pastoral leaders, and nurturing an apostolic spirit."

Cover: This image of Our Lady of the Annunciation (1963), by celebrated Hungarian tile artist Geza Saint Galy, was gifted to Theological College by Rev. John Kemper, P.S.S., when he passed to eternal life on May 21, 2020.

If there are in the seminary three apostolic men filled with humility, gentleness, patience, zeal, charity, and a sense of poverty, with the knowledge and wisdom necessary for this godly enterprise, they would be enough to sanctify the entire diocese.

— Rev. Jean-Jacques Olier
Founder of the Society of Saint Sulpice

This year's Annual Report is dedicated to our seminarians, who clearly embraced and exemplified the Sulpician tradition early on in this unique formation year, and to you, our donors, who do so much to make the excellent quality of our formation program possible.

Dear Alumni and Friends,

I am pleased to share this Annual Report for Theological College. It covers FY 2021, from July 1, 2020, to June 30, 2021. During this period, the Church opened the Year of St. Joseph, a time to honor the foster father of Jesus during which the seminary community reflected on the role St. Joseph plays in the life of Jesus and Mary and in the life of the Church. This year has been challenging for all of us here at Theological College and throughout the world, as we have been dealing with the spread of the COVID-19 virus. This pandemic changed our world in many ways, including how we go about formation work and attending classes. Social distancing, norms, and regulations in facing the virus demanded our full attention as a community.

We thank God that we had only one case of COVID in the house in late January. Classes were online-only for the fall semester; in the spring semester, classes were both in-person and online. Remarkably, our Pastoral Formation Program, which this year is celebrating 50 years of existence, was still operational, enabling seminarians to participate in field assignment work in parishes, schools, and hospitals, often via online encounters. This demonstrated to our seminarians that even during a pandemic we can and must minister to God's people in creative ways. In the midst of carrying on the work of the seminary in unprecedented circumstances, I experienced the grace of being installed as the 17th rector of Theological College on October 30, 2020.

Theological College's origin as a Sulpician seminary is rooted in the Sulpician tradition of forming seminarians after the heart of Jesus to be men of character who will be effective priests. The goal of my rectorship, which is the mission of Theological College, is first and foremost to cultivate committed and capable pastoral leaders while nurturing an apostolic spirit.

This year's Annual Report is dedicated to our seminarians, who clearly embraced and exemplified the Sulpician tradition early on in this unique formation year, and to you, our donors, who do so much to make the excellent quality of our formation program possible. Our partnership with our patrons and their continued financial support, prayers, loyalty, and love of TC are invaluable to the fulfillment of our mission. I must simply say thank you for your support and for helping me to impart to our seminarians the ethos of our founder, Father Jean-Jacques Olier: "to live supremely for God in Christ Jesus our Lord," so much so that the inner life of his Son should penetrate to the inmost depths of our hearts and to such an extent that everyone should be able to say, "It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me."

Our Lady Seat of Wisdom, pray for us. St. Joseph, pray for us.

May God be Praised,

Rev. Dominic Ciriaco, P.S.S.

The seminary can be seen as a place and a period in life. But it is above all an educational community in progress: It is a community established by the bishop to offer to those called by the Lord to serve as apostles the possibility of re-living the experience of formation which our Lord provided for the Twelve.

Dear priests, in this year dedicated to him, I invite you to rediscover in a special way in prayer the figure and mission of Saint Joseph, obedient to God’s will, humble author of great undertakings, obedient and creative servant.

— Pope Francis

The St. Joseph statue outside TC’s Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Chapel was created most likely over 100 years ago by the E. Hacker liturgical craftsmen shop in Lacrosse, Wisc.
